

Influx-outflux plot

*connection of a variable's missingness indicator with observed data on other variables connection of a variable's observed data with missing data on other variables